English couple Edwina and John Thornton, attracted by the success of the MyKasih Programme, which distributes aid to needy families, recently made a RM26,000 contribution to the MyKasih Foundation. The foundation helps almost 4,000 families all over Malaysia with the purchase of essential food items, skills training, financial literacy programmes and educational-based activities. MyKasih Foundation chairman and co-founder Ngau Boon Keat is seen here with the couple and some of the recipients of the welfare programme on Jan 18 in Kuala Lumpur.
